

FUNDACIÓN BOLIVIA DIGNA

Social work in Oruro

La Salle is an internationally renowned school and has one project in the city of Oruro.

Work with small children and teenagers in Oruro

The local school "La Salle" is working in disadvantaged communities of Oruro, in particular with small children (less than 5 years) and teenagers and does social projects with them.

We are looking for a girl who would carry out social projects together with the school's staff and some students in several communities.

There is no fee for this volunteering: you would live in the house together with the staff and receive free accommodation and food for the time of your stay. Interested? Contact us info@boliviadigna.org !

About Oruro

Oruro or Uru Uru is a city in Bolivia with a population of 264,683, located in the Altiplano about equidistant between La Paz and Sucre at 3700m above sea level. It is the capital of the Oruro Department of Bolivia and home to the famous Carnival, the second biggest after Rio de Janeiro of Latin America.

